1. What is the Future Continuous Tense?

It describes an ongoing action that will be in progress at a specific time in the future.

(Imagine pausing a movie at 5 PM tomorrow—whatever someone is doing at that exact moment is Future Continuous!)

2. Sentence Structure & Formulas

Sentence Type	Formula / Rule	Example
Positive (+)	Subject + will be + Verb(-ing)	At 7 PM, we will be watching a movie.
Negative (-)	Subject + will not be (won't be) + Verb(-ing)	He won't be playing outside tomorrow.
Question (?)	Will + Subject + be + Verb(-ing) + ?	Will you be sleeping when I call?

3. Where Do We Use It? (3 Main Clues)

Action in progress at a specific future time:

- Tomorrow at 10 AM, students will be writing their exam.

Polite inquiries about someone's plans:

- Will you be using the computer for long?

Two parallel actions happening together in the future:

- While mother cooks dinner, father will be watering the garden.

4. Golden Rules & Common Traps

Rule 1: Always keep "be" before the -ing verb.

- ✗ Wrong: She will studying tonight.
- ✓ Right: She will be studying tonight.

Rule 2: Don't drop "be" in negative sentences.

- ✗ Wrong: They won't playing tennis.
- ✓ Right: They won't be playing tennis.

5. Time Clues (Signal Words)

If a specific time reference appears in a sentence, the Future Continuous tense is formed:

- At this time tomorrow / This time next week
- At 5 PM tomorrow / At midnight tonight
- All day tomorrow / During the summer vacation
- While + Subject + Present Tense

6. Quick Practice Examples:

- This time tomorrow, our class will be traveling to the science museum. (Positive)
- We won't be attending the music concert this Sunday evening. (Negative)
- Will you be working on the school project when I arrive? (Question)
