

Name:

Class:

 Instruction: Match each masculine noun with its correct feminine noun.

king princess

actor

mother

lion

actress

prince heroine

waiter

queen

hero

niece

nephew

lioness

father

waitress

Name:

Class:

 Instruction: Write the opposite gender of each given noun.

- husband → _____
- man → _____
- uncle → _____
- boy → _____
- son → _____
- king → _____
- actor → _____
- lion → _____
- horse → _____
- tiger → _____
- prince → _____
- nephew → _____
- brother → _____
- wizard → _____
- hero → _____
- god → _____
- rooster → _____
- gentleman → _____
- stag → _____
- waiter → _____
- bull → _____
- monk → _____
- heir → _____
- host → _____
- landlord → _____
- master → _____
- duke → _____
- fox → _____
- sir → _____
- peacock → _____
- bridegroom → _____
- ram → _____
- actor → _____
- shepherd → _____

Name:

Class:

Instruction: Read each sentence and circle whether the bold word is Masculine or Feminine.

- The queen ruled her kingdom wisely.
- The boy helped his mother in the kitchen.
- The lioness chased the deer swiftly.
- The actor performed well on stage.
- The princess danced at the royal ball.
- The waiter served food to the guests.
- The mother told a bedtime story.
- The king sat on a golden throne.
- The goddess was worshipped by the villagers.
- The prince rode his horse through the forest.
- The tiger roared loudly near the cave.
- The maid cleaned the big room.
- The brother played football with his friends.
- The girl sang beautifully on stage.
- The emperor ruled a vast empire.
- The niece gave a gift to her aunt.
- The husband carried the bags for his wife.
- The cow grazed peacefully in the field.
- The man wore a blue jacket.
- The woman baked delicious cookies.

Name:

Class:

Instruction: Underline the noun that shows gender in each sentence.

- The queen invited all the princes to the palace.
- The waiter carried a tray full of dishes.
- My aunt teaches in a nearby school.
- The lion roared loudly in the jungle.
- The bride looked beautiful in her red dress.
- The host welcomed everyone with a smile.
- The actress received an award for her movie.
- The king gave gold coins to the poor.
- The shepherd took care of his sheep.
- The niece helped her uncle in the kitchen.
- The gentleman opened the door for the lady.
- The monk lived alone in a small hut.
- The goddess was honored with flowers and songs.
- The stallion ran faster than the mare.
- The emperor built a large palace in his capital.
- The witch mixed herbs in her magic pot.
- The bridegroom arrived with his family.
- The landlord collected rent from the tenants.
- The hero saved the people from danger.
- The duchess visited the poor families in her town.

Name:

Class:

Instruction: Choose the correct word from the bracket and fill in the blank.

- The _____ (prince/princess) danced at the ball.
- The _____ (actor/actress) won the award for best performance.
- The _____ (king/queen) ruled the land with justice.
- The _____ (waiter/waitress) brought us the bill.
- The _____ (uncle/aunt) gave me a gift.
- The _____ (tiger/tigress) hunted in the jungle.
- The _____ (husband/wife) baked a cake for the family.
- The _____ (man/woman) carried the heavy box.
- The _____ (host/hostess) welcomed everyone warmly.
- The _____ (lion/lioness) protected her cubs.
- The _____ (hero/heroine) saved the village from danger.
- The _____ (wizard/witch) cast a powerful spell.
- The _____ (nephew/niece) visited their grandparents.
- The _____ (father/mother) helped with homework.
- The _____ (drake/duck) swam across the pond.
- The _____ (bull/cow) grazed in the field.
- The _____ (groom/bride) wore a beautiful dress.
- The _____ (monk/nun) lived in the temple.
- The _____ (stallion/mare) won the race.
- The _____ (emperor/empress) visited the grand palace.