What is a Personal Pronoun?

- A personal pronoun is a word used in place of a person, animal, or thing to avoid repeating names again and again.
- It helps make sentences shorter and easier to read.

Example:

- Riya is a good girl. Riya loves to sing. → Riya is a good girl. She loves to sing.
- Rahul and I are friends. → We are friends.
- The cat is sleeping. → It is sleeping.

Personal Pronouns Table

| Person                | Number                  | Subject Pronouns | Object Pronouns |
|-----------------------|-------------------------|------------------|-----------------|
| 1st Person (Speaker)  | Singular                | I                | me              |
|                       | Plural                  | we               | us              |
| 2nd Person (Listener) | Singular / Plural       | you              | you             |
| 3rd Person (Others)   | Singular (Male)         | he               | him             |
|                       | Singular (Female)       | she              | her             |
|                       | Singular (Thing/Animal) | it               | it              |
|                       | Plural (People/Things)  | they             | them            |

Remember

- Use I / we / you / he / she / it / they when the pronoun is doing the action.
Example: He runs fast.
- Use me / us / you / him / her / it / them when the pronoun receives the action.
Example: The teacher called him.
