What is a Verb?

- A verb is a word that shows action, state, or being.
- It tells what a person, animal, or thing does, is, or has.
- Without verbs, a sentence cannot be complete!

Types of Verbs (with Meaning & Examples)

Type	Meaning	Examples in Sentences
Action Verbs	Show what someone or something does.	run, jump, write, eat, play, sing
Linking Verbs	Show a state of being (connect subject and description).	am, is, are, was, were, seem, become
Helping Verbs	Help the main verb to show time or meaning.	have, has, do, does, will, shall, can, may
Transitive Verbs	Need an object to complete the meaning.	She reads a book.
Intransitive Verbs	Do not need an object.	The baby cried .
Regular Verbs	Form past tense by adding -ed .	walk → walked, play → played
Irregular Verbs	Have special past tense forms.	go → went, eat → ate, write → wrote

Remember

- Every complete sentence must have a verb to show action or state of being.
- Verbs tell what someone does, feels, or has — e.g., run, jump, eat, is, have.
- Some verbs show action (She runs fast), while others show being (He is happy).
- Verbs change with time (tense): I go (present), I went (past), I will go (future).*
- Helping verbs (am, is, are, has, will, can) support main verbs to show time or meaning.
- Always make sure the verb agrees with the subject and shows the right tense.

Examples:

- The dog runs fast.
- She is happy.
- We play cricket.
- The sun shines brightly.
- They were late to class.
- I play football.
- They are happy.
- The cat sleeps on the mat.
- We have a new car.
- He wrote a letter.
