What is a Verb?

- A verb is a word that shows action, state, or being.
- It tells what a person, animal, or thing does, is, or has.
- Without verbs, a sentence cannot be complete!

Types of Verbs (with Meaning & Examples)

| Type                      | Meaning                                                  | Examples in Sentences                      |
|---------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|
| Action Verbs       | Show what someone or something does.                     | run, jump, write, eat, play, sing          |
| Linking Verbs      | Show a state of being (connect subject and description). | am, is, are, was, were, seem, become       |
| Helping Verbs      | Help the main verb to show time or meaning.              | have, has, do, does, will, shall, can, may |
| Transitive Verbs   | Need an object to complete the meaning.                  | She reads a book.                   |
| Intransitive Verbs | Do not need an object.                                   | The baby cried .                    |
| Regular Verbs      | Form past tense by adding -ed .                   | walk → walked, play → played               |
| Irregular Verbs    | Have special past tense forms.                           | go → went, eat → ate, write → wrote        |

Remember

- Every complete sentence must have a verb to show action or state of being.
- Verbs tell what someone does, feels, or has — e.g., run, jump, eat, is, have.
- Some verbs show action (She runs fast), while others show being (He is happy).
- Verbs change with time (tense): I go (present), I went (past), I will go (future).*
- Helping verbs (am, is, are, has, will, can) support main verbs to show time or meaning.
- Always make sure the verb agrees with the subject and shows the right tense.

Examples:

- The dog runs fast.
- She is happy.
- We play cricket.
- The sun shines brightly.
- They were late to class.
- I play football.
- They are happy.
- The cat sleeps on the mat.
- We have a new car.
- He wrote a letter.
